Funeral Home and Cremation Services

Cremation Check & Balances Policy

1. Honest facts are crucial in building integrity and trust. We composed this brochure so you are assured we treat your loved ones with the dignity and care they deserve.
2. Personal Identity, for security reasons, we positively identify your loved one upon removal from hospital or care facility, or home death, we ask for a picture id. You can rest assured we take our services seriously and treat them with a great deal of care and respect.
3. Tracking System, when your loved one is transferred into our care they are given a personal identification number which stays with your loved one through the entire process. Personal belongings are categorized and locked in a fire/water proof safe until next-of-kin arrives.
4. ID Viewing, our staff will give sanitary care to your loved one and dress them in clothes provided by family. We ask for a family member to positively identify your loved one prior to our “professional transport to the crematory facility”. Your family will have an opportunity to say goodbye.
5. Completion of necessary paperwork, We will complete all the paperwork and file forms and authorizations. We handle this as part of our services on your behalf.
6. Our Professional Transport to the Crematory, your loved one will be transported from our funeral home to the crematory by a licensed funeral director or qualified director’s assistant. The transfer times are documented and a representative ensures the process conducts adequately.

Crematory details... The crematory we use is one of the oldest, upstanding facility in our area, they handle all their services with integrity. The licensed funeral director or qualified directors assistant who is entrusted to your loved one, reviews all information and ensures order prior to the cremation process.

After cremation... The recoverable cremated remains are placed into a container along with ID # Tag. Your loved ones documents are placed into our representatives permanent files.

Return of cremated remains... Upon completion of the process, we will schedule a time that is convenient for you to take remains to final resting place. We also handle the scheduling and supervision of memorial services or celebration of life services.

Our funeral home staff honor the ones we serve with attentive care to detail. In your time of need trust us, to act on your behalf, with your benefit in mind. Should any question arise or you feel that our services will meet your families need, call, we would be honored to serve.
