1. It is important to choose a funeral provider that you feel comfortable with, and have a long-standing reputation in the community. Our family is your friend and neighbor, our focus is to provide outstanding care with attention to detail.
2. Your family is our Priority. A funeral needs to be conducted right the first time, for your peace of mind we have the checks & balances in place to assure all aspects go the way they are intended. We are a professional firm where shortcuts do not exist, we are committed to funeral service and the quality of life in our community, above all we have your best interest at heart.
3. At our firm, you have options, we offer a variety of services that will meet or exceed your families personal need in the most dignified manner. “Best value funeral care; in quality, selection, and personal service.” Daniel B. Kennedy f.d. licensed insurance agent
4. Expert guidance of a qualified funeral director. A funeral is a delicate issue that at some point everyone has to deal with, however, we make a difficult time easier with care and compassion.
5. You are never alone... we are here when you need us, available to serve at a moments notice... 24 hours a day... everyday.
6. Your loved ones deserve timely, confidential, quality care. We are committed to our services and care for your loved one as if they were our own.
7. Requests are honored and always welcome. We encourage creative ideas to celebrate lives and incorporate family involvement as much as desired. Our goal has been to go above and beyond the “normal funeral” and constantly challenge the status quo.
8. Losing a loved one is never easy, it is an honor to walk you through your journey of loss to healing. You will receive the benefits of our after-care program, Kennedy stepping forward program, and bereavement book-club grief resource library.
9. We offer professional pre-planning services, be it you moved or the funeral home you worked with is no longer in business or changes hands, your arrangements can be transferred to our funeral home. We handle all the paperwork and transfer of finances into a interest bearing bank trust or insurance policy. Please call if you find that you meet the above criteria, we would be honored to help you make a comfortable choice.
10. Like most, home is where our heart is, we open our doors, welcoming families to honor loved ones. We have a community minded attitude, you can find us volunteering and devoting our time to help families make informed choices through many new innovative ways. Our funeral staff is efficient, understanding, and caring. Our facility has a true home-like feel, a special place to honor the ones you love. Up-front business means we are looking out for your interests, in your time of need.
